

SIX project space – a brief overview

Year one

- We had a white cube gallery space in Boscombe that provided constant exhibition space for local and national artists.
- Arranged artists talks
- Led crits for around four/five artists at a time to share and discuss their work.
- Facilitated a Big Draw event for the local community.
- Supported both staff and students from Arts University Bournemouth with exhibition opportunities.
- Hosted three book launches.
- Made the space available for a couple of music related events.
- Made the space available for the local community to rent.

Year two

- Created an online film (Vimeo) channel and currently have made nine films and have two more waiting to edit, and two more artists lined up to film.
- Organised and supported five exhibitions.
- Made links with Bank Street Arts Sheffield and supported them through making four films (so far) about artists from their community.
- Involved with BEAF (Bournemouth Emerging Arts Fringe) 2015.
- Facilitated one leg of this summers Tanteo project that saw us hosting ten international artists within our community.
- Facilitating collaborations and networking locally and nationally.

- Working with local council to create an exhibition and book documenting the history of Rastgarth house and Arthur & Nancy Bell who lived there.

SIX was founded in Bournemouth and supports emerging and established practitioners both nationally and overseas.

SIX seeks out and actively encourages the exercise of good practice, experimentation, enquiry and research. We value quality over quantity, the experimental over commercial; our main priority is to nourish the practice.

Year Three – and beyond

- Move the SIX house to Sheffield.
- Leave a core team of SIX in Bournemouth to facilitate projects.
- Continue with making artists films.
- Offer month long residencies for exploration of work.
- Create more links across cities beginning with Sheffield and Bournemouth and expanding to more as we move forward.
- Host retreats for in depth discussion between groups of artists.
- Investigate publishing books.

We have had 34 exhibitions, worked with around 130 artists, have nearly 1000 followers on facebook and 500 people on our mailing list.
